to participate in aiding the association in its benevolent objects, are requested to attend.

SCUDDED DEATH.—An employee who had been discharged on account of bad health, at Johnstonville, arrived in this city Saturday night before last. He stepped into the Louisville Hotel, and Mr. O'Brien, the clerk, told him he had better sit by the fire until morning. Early yesterday morning he was found in the water closet in a dying condition, and before medical aid could arrive the unfortunate man had died. His name was Ira Mott. Some papers and money found on his person are in the hands of Coroner Gill, who held an inquest, and had the body buried in the Western graveyard.

BARRECKS NO. 1.—Yesterday was rather a lively day at the barracks for Sunday. The recruits were one hundred and forty convalescents from different points, and four defectives from Indianapolis. The transfers were one thousand and forty-two convalescents to Nashville, fourteen to Washington, and seventeen to Cairo, Illinois. Six prisoners were sent off as follows: three to Cincinnati, one to St. Louis, one to Alton, Illinois, and one to Columbus, Ohio.

Cigar Manufacturers.
The cigar manufacturers of the city of Louisville are requested to meet in the back room of the Assessor's office, on Jefferson street, between Third and Fourth streets, on Thursday afternoon, the 17th, at three o'clock, as matters of the greatest interest to all will be brought before the meeting.

MILITARY COMMISSION.—The Military Commission, of which Brig. Gen. Judah is President, will convene in the Chancery Courtroom at 10 o'clock this morning for the trial of the case of Lieut. Geo. of the Fourteenth Illinois Cavalry, who is charged with making false reports in regard to ration, and thus swindling the Government out of a considerable amount.

ORCHARD HOUSE.—This splendid hotel and restaurant, under the management of W. A.
Clark & Co., is doing a thriving business.
They are constantly in the receipt of orders, and game of every description, which they serve up in excellent style. They are prepared to furnish suppers in any part of the city upon the shortest notice.

CITY.—Yesterday was a sublime and beautiful Sabbath day. The city was unusually quiet and the day was generally observed as one of rest by everybody. Nothing of importance transpired. The night was clear and cool and the tolling church bells summoned large congregations together in the different houses of worship.

"LOOK OUT, DUCKS."—We understand that a large party of young gentlemen of this city and county intend starting for the prairie in a day or two on a hunting excursion. If the boys don't succeed in killing a great deal of game, they can have the satisfaction of knowing that they have killed a great deal of time.

McGill Club.
The McGill Club will meet at Beck's Hall on Wednesday evening, the 16th instant, at 7 o'clock. Every member should be present, as business of importance will come before the meeting.

One of the best and most energetic military agents in this country is Billy Pollock, Esq., on the Louisville and Nashville railroad.
We are under obligations to him repeatedly for favors. Yesterday he furnished us with Nashville papers.

A man by the name of Alexander Talbot was yesterday arrested and lodged in jail. He is charged with being concerned in the highway robbery of a man, whose name we did not learn, on election day.

Job Printing of all Descriptions, in Plain and Fancy Colors, Neatly Executed, at the Shortest Possible Notice, Call and Examine Specimens and learn prices.

The Democrat is supplied to all parts of the city promptly by faithful carriers.
Those wishing to be supplied with the paper should subscribe to the carrier direct, who will serve them regularly.

Amusement.
WOOD'S THEATRE.—Mr. Edwin Adams, the talented young tragedian, returns to us from the metropolitan cities of the East, bringing fresh laurels.
He is heralded by the press as one of the greatest actors on the American stage. He commences his career at Wood's theatre to-night, appearing in the great character of Hamlet, in Shakespeare's tragedy of that name, a part in which he equals if not surpasses Murdoch, the recognized "Prince of Denmark." Those who witnessed the matchless performance of Mr. Adams during his former visit to our city will be sure to see him again, and we would advise those who have not seen him to go to-night and witness his great impersonation of Shakespeare's greatest creation—Hamlet. Nearly a year ago this gentleman came to our city as an stranger, but during an engagement of two weeks he won the admiration of every one who saw him. We predict crowded houses for him during his present engagement.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—The favorite comedienne, Miss Emily Thorne, will make her first appearance in our city to-night, at the Louisville theatre, as Paul in the comedy of the Pet of the Petticoats. The performance will conclude with the farce of Sketches in India.

JOB PRINTING.
The JOB DEPARTMENT in the Democrat Office is ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

DISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR.—Dr. Gardner, formerly of London, England, oculist and surgeon, operator on the eye and ear, who has been meeting with great success in the principal cities of the United States since his arrival in this country, respectfully informs the citizens of Louisville and vicinity that he has taken rooms at the Louisville Hotel, parlor No. 117, first floor, and can be consulted daily from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 2 to 6 P. M., on deafness, noise in the head, earache, discharges from the ear, scales in the ear, accompanied of was in the ear, polyposis in the ear, obstruction of the eustachian tube and all acute or chronic diseases of the ear and sinus passages.

Artificial eyes inserted without pain, and perfectly resembling the natural eye. Operations for strabismus, or cross eye, artificial pupil, &c., skillfully performed, and all diseases of the eye and ear treated, and every operation in ocular and ophthalmic surgery performed by Dr. Gardner.

Any one desirous of having his opinion of any case relating to either the eye or the ear, will at all times receive the same candidly. If application be made in person, he is generally able to make a correct diagnosis, and if not, whether relief can be given, and to what extent.

THANKSGIVING DINNER AT THE HOSPITALS.
—Members of the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society, of the Christian and Saviour's Commission, Chaplains and Surgeons of the Hospitals, are requested to meet at the small hall of the Masonic Temple, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, to make arrangements for providing a Thanksgiving dinner for our sick and wounded soldiers. A full and punctual attendance is desired.

Election Returns.
HARDINSBURG, KY., NOV. 11.
Messrs. Editors: Inclosed you will find the official vote of Hardinsburg county: McEllister, 100; Lincoln, 42.
LEWISTOWN, KY., NOV. 10.
Messrs. Editors: The following is a true statement of the vote at the close of the polls, November 8, 1864, in Lincoln, 118; Lincoln, 52.
Every thing passed off quietly.

The following is the official vote of Hardin county: McElister, 1,610; Lincoln, 83; Mc-Clister's majority, 627.

BOLD ROBBERY.—A government employe was knocked down, badly beaten and robbed of two hundred and forty dollars, on last Friday night, by three men who met him near the Rock City Mills, at the foot of Cherry street, in Nashville. The Union says that the fortunate man had just received six months' wages, and was on his way home to his family.
We did not learn his name. The time when this outrage occurred was about 10 o'clock, and in bright moonlight. All that he remembered of the occurrence was that three men approached him, and one spoke to him. As he turned his head to see who it was, he was struck a violent blow and rendered insensible.
That city is full of desperate characters, and too much caution cannot be exercised by all those whose business renders it necessary to be out alone at night. A bullet could not be sent to better use than to rid the world of some of these villains.

ILLINOIS COTTON.—We learn that the cotton crop has been very successful this season in Southern Illinois, paying far better than any other product. Four hundred bales have already been shipped from Carbondale, and more than as much more will be shipped. It is coming into Cairo with equal rapidity, and the entire line of the Central railroad. Extensive preparations are being made for the coming year, and if the season is propitious, the cotton crop will be really immense.

Hood's army is now on the north side of Tennessee is about the following force: Cavalry, 2,000
Infantry, 2,000
Artillery, 2,000
Total, 6,000

BURGLAR.—On Thursday morning the body of a man was found near Hord's Mills, in Pennsylvania, suspended from the limb of a tree. In his pockets were discovered several letters addressed to John M. Smith, from Monroe county, Kentucky, and it is probable that it is the name of the self-murderer. He was about forty years old, and was dressed in soldier's clothing.

ESCAPED CONVICTS.—On Friday night three convicts, Jno. Roberts, Geo. Tidwell, and Geo.
W. Terrell, who were confined in the Clark county jail, fled, and it is probable that they are charged in making their escape by the process of tunnelling under the walls. A reward has been offered for their recapture.

STOLEN DEATH.—Anthony McElister, Esq., died at his residence in Pittsburgh about noon on Thursday. It appears that he took a severe cold on the night of the Republican procession, and was confined to bed on Sunday. Notwithstanding this brief warning, his death was sudden and unexpected.

FROM MISS DUNN.—On the last trip of the steamer Conway a very serious accident occurred among some soldiers, which ended in four of the party being drowned, and another being narrowly rescued from a watery grave.
They were all intoxicated at the time they fell overboard.

AFFECTING INTERVIEW.—The wife of Edw.
W. Green, the Malvern (Mass.) murderer, had, on Wednesday, her first interview with him since the day for his execution was fixed by the Executive. The interview occupied half an hour and was very affecting.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Rebel Plot to Sink the Michigan and Release the Prisoners on Johnson's Island.
[From the Buffalo Express, Monday.] Saturday afternoon Mayor Fargo received information from a private source, which he considers reliable beyond question, that a plot had been concocted by the traitorous refugees in Canada to sink the revenue cutter Michigan, now stationed at Sandusky, and release the prisoners confined on Johnson's Island. The exact source of this important disclosure we do not know, but the fact, however, that the rebels are so busy, and the facts are substantially as follows:

James Bates, a Southern refugee, purchased of the firm of A. M. Smith & Co., of Toronto, the propeller Georgian, representing that she was to be employed in the Saginaw lumber trade. It is proper to state that Smith & Co. are gentlemen of high standing as business men, friendly toward us, and were entirely ignorant of the use to which she was to be put.
The Georgian was delivered to Bates at Port Colborne on the 1st instant, and the purchase money, $16,000 in Canada funds, paid. Mayor Fargo was informed that her engineer told Bates that the wheel on her engine, and it would be necessary either to go to Toronto or this port for repairs. It was not stated that she did come here, but an inspection of the books at the Collector's office showed that she was reported here on the 2d, without cargo, and cleared the same day for Port Colborne. It was also ascertained that the wheel was repaired by P. M. Jones.

A dispatch from this city to a hotel keeper at Port Colborne, dated the 2d, and signed by Bates, stating that he had come to that place sengers at his house for the propeller Geo-rganian, to have them wait, was headed to the Mayor by the propeller Georgian, and it was Bates stated that he proposed to strengthen the bows of the propeller so that she could be used as a ram against the Michigan; declared that he had a sufficient force of men for his purpose; and also intimated that he was supplied with arms and ammunition. He had in his possession a large quantity of arms and ammunition, and was in the harbor of Sandusky, on which was marked the location of the Michigan and the Georgian. He also stated that he was certain whether he would be able to break open the bows of his vessel in passing through the Welland canal, if a demand was made upon him to do so.

Mayor Fargo at once telegraphed the startling information he had received to Captain Bates at the Michigan, and to the Georgian at as far west as Detroit. He also consulted with a number of our dock merchants. Capt. Dobbins telegraphed to his agent at Port Colborne, asking whether the Georgian was there, and if not, at what time she left, and at what place, but he did not give an intimation as to the object of his inquiries. His reply was that the Georgian left for Sandusky at six o'clock on Saturday evening, after taking on board thirty cords of wood.

The agent also added: "There was nothing particularly suspicious about her," but that the Georgian was to leave the next morning and would probably have a cargo of lumber on board. He also stated that the Georgian was there, and if not, at what time she left, and at what place, but he did not give an intimation as to the object of his inquiries. His re-
at six o'clock on Saturday evening, after taking
on board thirty cords of wood.

Any attempt to ship at any one point a sufficient number of men and the munitions necessary for the accomplishment of the piratical raid would necessarily have attracted the attention of the Canadian authorities and resulted in the seizure of the boat. It is probable that Bates, therefore, stopped at night on the way up, and picked up a party of his fellow out-throws in small squads, after which he took on wood enough to last for quite a cruise.

His scheme, although a desperate one, might have succeeded, and it is to be hoped that he did not receive information of his discovery before attempting to execute his plan. The Michigan is now ready to make lumber of his vessel, to be used as a coffin for himself and crew, in case they do not deliver the hangers by being either shot or drowned.

John Allen, Esq., Capt. D. Bates and others sent a telegram to the Governor of Michigan, requesting that he would send a party to investigate the Georgian, and if found to be engaged in piracy, to seize her and her cargo.
The Governor has agreed to do so.

THE REBEL MAJOR WOLF RECAPTURED.—At the request of Rev. Philip McKim, the anti-slavery agent of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the execution of that officer has been postponed for fourteen days, to give him time to prepare for his march through the valley of the shadow of death. It is now known, however, that he is not to be executed to-day.
It must not be supposed that the threatening letter, signed "J. Wolf," sent to the anti-slavery agent, was a bluff, and that he was two-faced, but that he has been in hiding since this receipt, although the writer may flatter himself that he has secured somebody.
After who were thought to be his associates, however, they may be, are accorded more privileges than the poor devil who fight in the ranks. Mr. Wolf is a man of some feats at Barnum's, while hundreds of his peer deluded followers are crowded into a narrow room and left to wallow in filth. Wolf is a clever fellow, and he is a man of some feats at Barnum's, while hundreds of his
narrow room and left to wallow in filth.
